ORDER

This matter is before the court on defendant, Terrell Bass's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [79]. After consultation with counsel for the parties, the court finds good cause for granting the requested continuance; defendant's counsel requires additional time to review discovery, resolve guideline calculation issues, and negotiate a plea agreement. The defendant has stated through counsel that he does not intend to proceed to trial. The court has been advised that the co-defendant does not object to the continuance. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [79] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for both defendants, now set for April 25, 2023, is continued to June 27, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and June 27, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without counsel for the parties requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: April 14, 2023.

United States Magistrate Judge
